

Getting the outdoor kit in order

14:18:PM 08/02/2014

Ben Thomas

Taste this

La Linea Tempranillo Rosé 2013

(Adelaide Hills) $20; 12%

4.5 out of 5

Here's a rosé to look out for. It smells of fresh-picked strawberries and cherries and the perfume of Turkish delight, and these aromas really set you up for a mouthful of flavour. That's just what you get, with generous, juicy red fruits, citrus and spice flavours that build in intensity as they flow along the tongue. Textural, dry and highly refreshing, it rates high on the drinkability scale.

In fact, the bottle was empty far too soon.

Food match Jamón and melon

